YANGZHENG FOUNDATION ENDOWED ELDERCARE SCHOLARSHIP (FULL-TIME UNDERGRADUATES)

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The Yangzheng Foundation Endowed Eldercare Scholarship is open to all full-time undergraduates (except Law students) in Year One or Year Two at point of application with interest to work in the eldercare sector.

2. Applicants must be Singapore Citizens or Permanent Residents with good academic and co-curricular activities records, active participation in community service, possess strong language skills, and demonstrate leadership qualities.

3. This Scholarship is to be awarded on an annual basis, and eligible students have to apply for it annually.

4. Scholarship recipients are not required to serve a bond with the University, but are required to fulfil an internship and/ or involve in a service-learning project over a period of 3 to 6 months in an eldercare sector. Completion of NIE301 may be counted towards fulfilling the community service requirement.

5. Recipients may not concurrently hold any other scholarship, fellowship, award or allowance without prior approval from the University.

6. Recipients are required to sit for all examinations, complete the programme within the prescribed time and conform to regulations, instructions and discipline in force for the respective programme. In addition, scholars must have good conduct and maintain at least a cumulative Grade Point Average of 4.0 to re-apply for the Scholarship.

7. Recipients will be required to take part in university's activities/events, and community involvement projects as deemed appropriate and/or directed by the University.

8. Scholarship application must be submitted online by the stipulated deadline, together with all relevant supporting documents. Shortlisted candidates will be notified to attend an interview. The decision of the University on the selection of scholarship candidates is final and no appeal will be entertained.

9. The University reserves the right to withdraw or suspend the scholarship at any time if, in its opinion, the recipient's conduct and/or academic performance has not been satisfactory.

10. The University reserves the right to amend the above terms and conditions at its sole discretion without prior notice.
