

MOHAMED ABDUL JALEEL SCHOLARSHIP (NSHD FULL-TIME UNDERGRADUATES)

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The Mohamed Abdul Jaleel Scholarship is open to all full-time undergraduates in the S R Nathan School of Human Development (NSHD).
2. Applicants must be Singapore Citizens with good academic and co-curricular activities records, active participation in community service and possess strong language skills. In addition, applicants should have a monthly household Per Capita Income (PCI) of S$2,250 or lower. Priority will be given to students with financial difficulties.
3. This Scholarship is to be awarded on an annual basis, and eligible students have to apply for it annually.
4. Each award is S$7,500 and is to be used within the following academic year (2 semesters) to offset the recipient's tuition fees, or expenses for regional immersion programme or other educational activities organised by the SUSS, provided that the use of the scholarship fund for the regional programme/activities shall not exceed 25% of the scholarship value.
5. Scholarship recipients are not required to serve a bond with the University. They may not concurrently hold the S M Jaleel Foundation – Mendaki Scholarship, or any other scholarship, fellowship, award or allowance without prior approval from the University.
6. Recipients are required to sit for all examinations, complete the programme within the prescribed time and conform to regulations, instructions and discipline in force for the respective programme. In addition, scholars must have good conduct and maintain their academic performance as the top 10% of the cohort in terms of results to re-apply for the Scholarship.
7. Recipients will be required to take part in university's activities/events, and community involvement projects as deemed appropriate and/or directed by the University.
8. Scholarship application must be submitted online by the stipulated deadline, together with all relevant supporting documents. Shortlisted candidates will be notified to attend an interview. The decision of the University on the selection of scholarship candidates is final and no appeal will be entertained.
9. The University reserves the right to withdraw or suspend the scholarship at any time if, in its opinion, the recipient's conduct and/or academic performance has not been satisfactory.
10. The University reserves the right to amend the above terms and conditions at its sole discretion without prior notice.

A separate letter and agreement with the detailed terms and conditions (including the above terms and conditions) and others relating to the course of study will be given to all successful scholarship candidates.
