

Wong Lan Eng Study Grant

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The Wong Lan Eng Study Grant is open to all eligible full-time undergraduates of SUSS.
2. Two (2) study grants, capped at S$4,000 each, will be given out in each academic year starting from AY2018/2019 to students with financial needs.
3. The study grant amount will be disbursed annually to the recipients at S$1,000 each year. For continued disbursement of the study grant, the recipients must achieve a cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of at least 3.0 each semester.
4. There is no bond attached to the study grant. However, repayment of the study grant is necessary for students who failed to start their intended study in the year in which the study grant is awarded.
5. The study grant may not, without the prior approval of SUSS, be held concurrently with any other bursaries, study awards and/or scholarships¹.
6. SUSS reserves the right to amend the terms and conditions for the study grant at its sole discretion without any prior notice.
7. Students are required to submit their supporting documents together with the e-application. Applications received without the necessary supporting documents will be deemed as incomplete and will not be processed.
8. The application, notification and disbursement periods for are as follows:

Application Period	Notification Period	Disbursement Period
1 June to 30 June	End August	End September

9. Applicants will be notified of the outcome via email. The decision of SUSS is final and no appeal will be entertained.

¹ Students who are awarded bursaries/study awards/scholarships, which are meant to cover the tuition fees only, can concurrently hold this study grant. Students who are holding awards or bursaries that are meant for specific programmes on top of the tuition fees and living expenses, such as bursaries meant for participation in overseas exchange programmes, can also concurrently hold this study grant.