Notes:

- 1) The course fee payable each semester is dependent on the number of courses the student takes in each semester.
- 2) The course fee does not include textbooks and fee for other items specified by Singapore University of Social Sciences from time to time.
- 3) The fees stated above are reviewed annually and may be revised. The University reserves the right to adjust the course fee without prior notice.
- 4) SkillsFuture Credit aims to encourage individuals to take ownership of their skills development and lifelong learning. Starting January 2016, all Singapore Citizens (SCs) aged 25 and above will receive an opening credit of S$500. The Singapore Government will provide periodic top-ups to SkillsFuture Credit and there is no expiry date. SC students may accumulate their SkillsFuture Credit and use it on top of existing government subsidies to pay their course fees at the University.
