

Special Award in Innovative Pedagogy (SAIP) Nomination Narrative – Guidelines and Instructions

Follow the guidelines and instructions below to prepare and submit your SAIP narrative. Each narrative should detail the innovative pedagogy implemented in one (1) course.

Guidelines

Applicants have to submit a narrative of the innovative pedagogy with supporting artefacts. The narrative should include:

1. Completed Cover Page (refer to pages 2 and 3 of this document).
2. Purpose of innovative pedagogy: What is the learning problem addressed in this course?
3. Description of the innovative pedagogy: What is the innovative pedagogy about?
4. Explanation of how the innovative pedagogy supports the intended learning and content: How does the innovative pedagogy address the problem?
5. Evaluation of the achievement of intended learning outcomes: How well does the innovative pedagogy achieve the intended learning outcomes?
6. Full eCE report(s) for the semester(s) of implementation.

Do embed relevant evidence to demonstrate the innovative pedagogy and improved learning resulting from it. Examples of supporting artefacts include, but are not limited to:

- Students' produced artefacts;
- Teaching materials and resources;
- Links to videos of implementation in the course (videos should be no longer than two (2) minutes);
- Course Definitive Documents (CDDs);
- Learning plans; or
- Feedback from students.
