

COU106e Group Theory and Group Dynamics

Level: 1

Credit Units: 5 Credit Units

Language: ENGLISH

Presentation Pattern: EVERY SEMESTER

E-Learning: BLENDED - Learning is done MAINLY online using interactive study materials in Canvas. Students receive guidance and support from online instructors via discussion forums and emails. This is supplemented with SOME face-to-face sessions. If the course has an exam component, this will be administered on-campus.

Synopsis:

Group Theory and Group Dynamics introduces students to group theory and the group process. Course content covers the nature and types of groups, dynamics of the group process, stages of group life, characteristics of effective groups, and the making of an effective group leader. Through online lectures, exercises, checklists and experiential learning in seminars, students will learn how to observe group processes to identify potential problems and issues, and apply relevant group skills to facilitate the group process.
